FEALTY TO CARDINAL CARDINAL PRESENTS

Knights of Columbus Pledge Him Their Support.

GUEST OF ORDER YESTERDAY

Urges Contribution to Catholic University-Believes Order Can Raise Half Million Dollars-State Deputy Haltigan Addresses Welcome to Prelate-Promises Submission.

Knights of Columbus, numbering 600, gave a reception to Caldinal Gibbons, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 606 E street northwest, yesterday afternoon.

Promptly at 4 o'clock, the cardinal, escorted by Supreme Knight Patrick J. Donovan and Grand Knights of the District of Columbia, entered the hall, and to the strains of "Maryland, My Maryland" proceeded to the stage.

Supreme Knight Donovan presided. With a few remarks he introduced State Deputy Patrick J. Haltigan, who welcomed the cardinal. He said:

Promises Fealty of Order.

"For the first time in the history of our organization, the Knights of Columbus of the National Capital have the great honor, this afternoon, of having with us as our distinguished guest, the great, the good, the noble, the saintly Cardinal Archbishop of Baltimore, his eminence Cardinal Gibbons, our beloved spirtual shepherd, who ever faithfully watches over the interests of his flock, and who, during many long years of the most wonderful ecclesiastical activity, has won for himself a name that will live forever in the minds and hearts of the people of this country.

"His presence with us to-day is most sincerely appreciated. In the name of our organization in the District of Columbia, I now express to him our heartfelt thanks for this visit, pledge our humble submission to his will, and our undying fealty and allegiance to all he represents as a prince and bishop of the holy mother

"Your eminence, we wish you ever to feel, in the stupendous responsibility of your high and holy office, that we of the Knights of Columbus, not only of this city, but of the nation, are ever ready to do your will, to support your enterprises, and to show you by every possible means in our power that we stand as a great phalanx of Catholic manhood behind you in all that you may undertake for the intellectual elevation of our people, the advancement and prosperity of the hely church, and the glory

"Again I bid you welcome to the hom of this Catholic organization. We number nearly 1,500. Each and every one of us most devoutly pray that the Almighty spare you to us for many years, to guide us in the pathways of righteousness and Cardinal Gibbons Replies. Cardinal Gibbons, in acknowledging the greetings accorded him by the audience,

"I had intended returning to Raltimore immediately after the installation services at St. Patrick's this morning. It is labored for fourteen years. Moving under my own learning that this building belongs to cents toward the Catholic University. If you were but 80,000 strong when you contributed $50,000, surely, with 200,000, you can raise $500,000. I want to see every Catholic in the country help the university. It is a means of benefit to us all. We should do while we can. 'Do not tomorrow what you can do to-day.

Past Grand Knight James S. Easby-Smith, Grand Knight Dr. William E. Pairo, Keane Council; Grand Knight George T. Kolb, Carroll Council; Grand Knight Vincent A. Sheehy, Spaulding Council, and Grand Knight Thomas J. cardinal's escort.

ROB HOMES OF THE WEALTHY.

Rockefeller's Gardener and Two Confederates Find Rich Plunder.

Stamford, Conn., Feb. 23.-George Putnam, a gardener for John D. Rockefeller, ing the summer home of Mrs. Madge L. Henning on January 18. Putnam had two confederates with him at the time.

Early yesterday morning the Henning house was again entered by burglars, and a flour barrel packed full of solid silverware was taken, besides costly dresses and bric-a-brac.

Mrs. Henning, who resides at 215 West Eightieth street, New York, says the value of the stolen property will net several thousand dollars.

The summer thome of Fred C. Gallatin, jr., of New York, adjoining Anson Phelps Stokes' house, was also burglarized. Little loot was obtained there.

CHOIRMASTER TO COME HERE.

G. Thomas Williams Accepts Position in Georgetown Church.

Special to The Washington Herald. Annapolis, Md., Feb. 23.-G. Thomas Williams, formerly of Baltimore, but for the last three years organist and choirmaster of St. Anne's Episcopal Church, Annapolis, has tendered his resignation to the vestry, having accepted the same position with St. John's Church at Georgetown, D. C. Mr. Williams will assume his new duties March 1. est regret to his congregation the death eight claims. of Rev. Henry Y. Satterles, Bishop of was beloved by those who knew him and every natural circumstance is favorable pointed candidate. "And they have put his accomplishments along ministerial to cleaning up gold."

A Queen's Bondoir,

Prom Madame The boudoir in which the queen spend a good deal of her time when at Sandringham is a pretty sunny apartment the general scheme of color being in that shade of pink rose which her majesty prefers to all others, and which is to be found in her rooms both at Windsor and at Buckingham Palace. On the walls hang many water-color sketches, some of which are the queen's own work, and, needless to say, the photographs which crowd every available nook and corner are as the sands of the sea in number.

Heaven Forbid!

From the Louisville Courier-Journal 'Why on't we see men like the novelists describe?" "I give it up. Why don't we see girls like the illustrators draw?

- PASTOR TO CHURCH

Continued from Page One.

Me, I also seed you; going therefore teach all nations, teaching them by observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and behold I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world. He that heareth you heareth Me; he fiast despises pour despises Me, and he that despises Me despises Four despises Me, and he that despises Me despises Him."

How exalted then is the function of the priest of God! What a privilege to be the herald of God's law 5, the nations of the earth! "How beautiful on the mountains," says the prophet, "are the feet of Him that soweth faith, that preacheth peace of Him that soweth faith, that preacheth salvation, that saith of Zion: That God shall reign." How cherished a favor to be the bearer of the dive by Heaven to proclaim that Gospel which brings glory to God and peace to man; that Gospel which strengthens the weak, which converts sinners, reconsiles enquire conceast the afflicted, and holds out that force the persons at the strengthens the weak, which converts sinners, reconsiles enquire conceast the afflicted, and holds out that force the persons are fined on the size and afterward, on the time of the kiss and afterward. strengthens the weak, which converts sinners, reconciles enemies, consoles the afflicted, and holds out to all the biessed promises of eternal life.

Referring to an incident occurring in connection with one of his meetings with enough, however, to gather a big crowd. the peerless Bayard, of Delaware, the cardinal said:

Senator Bayard, of Delaware, once remarked to me; "You who exercise the sacred ministry have a great advantage over us who are immersed in polit , for your words, spoken in church, are received with attention and reverence, whereas ou public utterances are always liable to be questioned and interrupted."

nust remember that while your statements are me fied by time and place, and by the political views are irreformable and immutable. They are not af hey are based on the eternal principles of trut and justice. The Gospel which we proclaim is as true in Pekin and Tokyo as it is in London and Washington; the same Gospel which Peter preached in Rome and Paul in Athens, which Augustine preached in England and Patrick in Ireland; the same which Columbus brought to these shores—this is the message which we declare from January to December. Jesus Christ yesterday and to-day, and the same forever."

Cardinal Gibbons then said:

Cardinal Gibbons then said:

Not only is the priest the ambassador of Christ, but he is also the dispenser of the mysteries of God.

"Let a man," says the apostle, "look upon us as the ministers of Christ and the dispensers of the mysteries of God." St. John Chrysostom, commenting on the priestly prerogatives, exclaims: "It was not to angels or archangels, but to the priests of the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the priest of the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the priest of the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the priest of the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the priest of the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the priest of the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the priest of the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the priest of the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose the church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall be church that the church church that Christ said: "Whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed also in Heaven." It was not to angels or archangels, but to the priests of the new law that Christ gave the power to consecrate His body and blood, and dispense the same to the faithful. Yes, as far as Heaven is above earth, and the soul is above the body, so much are the prerogatives vested in God, ministers higher than those of any carthly potentate.

The sincere and beautiful tribute of the President to the sterling qualities of his friend and oftentimes co-worker, Dr. Stafford, was the highest praise. The presence of the Vice President bespoke his deep appreciation of the work of a noble and self-sacrificing citizen.

Addressing the congregation, the cardi-Your hearts w life, and you felt that the honor bestowed on hi reflects on preachers and on the church of which he was a shining light.

You were proud of bim when you listened to him standing in the pulpit and expounding the truths of religion with so much grace and eloquence. You were proud of him when he lectured here and in other cities of the country before larke and discriminating audiences, whom he enchained by the magnetism of his personality. You were proud of him when he represented his church at civic gatherings and raised his voice as a citizen and as a man in the cause of humanity and charity and political purity. But, above all, you loved him and revered him as the shepherd of your souls, when he comforted you in your sorrow by kind words and kinder deeds.

deeds.

I have come this morning to alleviate your sorrow and heal your wounds. I have come to install your new pastor, who will worthily fill Dr. Stafford's place and will satisfy all your reasonable anticipations. I have known Rev. Father Russell for nineteen years, since the time of his ordination. After spending nearly five years in the country mission, I called him to the Baltimore Cathedral, where he has labored for fourteen years. Moving under my own only out of respect for this great order that I have remained I consider myself and merits. You will find in him an apostle who will preach to you the word of God with dignity and persuasive power. You will find in him a pastle and persuasive power. You will find in him a pastle and persuasive power. You will find in him a pastle and persuasive power. You will find in him a pastle and persuasive power. You will find in him a pastle and persuasive power. You will find in him a pastle and persuasive power. You will find in him a pastle and persuasive power. You will find in him a pastle and persuasive power. You will find in him a pastle will preach to your souls. You will find in him a pastle of the property o your organization. It shows a movement forward.

"Every Knight should contribute 50 to that congregation and to Baltimore, but Baltimore's loss is your gain. I am fully persuaded that the better you know him the more you will love and the better you know him the more you will love and the contribute to the set that cherish him, and you will soon be able to say that sur Shepherd, who was lost, is found; having been lead, he is come to life again.

The Musical Programme,

The choir of St. Patrick's Church, assisted by an orchestra of twenty pieces, rendered in excellent manner the following musical programme:

Potomac Council, were the At the post communion, "Prayer for the Republic Soloists—Soprano, Aris, Anna Grant Fugut, and, Mrs. Eather Gumprecht; tenor, Mr. Melville D. Heusey; bass, Mr. Thomas A. Murray, Organist—Anton Gloetzner.

Director—Armand Gumprecht, First violins—Mr. Christian Arth, Mr. Sol Minster, and Mr. Hermann Rakeman.

Among the clergy present in the sanctnnam, a gardener for John D. Rockefeller, ary were: Right Rev. D. J. O'Connel was sentenced a few days ago to not Bishop of Sebaste, rector of the Catholic more than three years nor less than University; Rev. Father Paul Griffith, but the sensation was mild compared with eighteen months in prison for burglariz- pastor of St. Augustine's Church, and that created to-day by the answer and Rev. Father Henry Banrage, C. S. C., of Holy Cross College. Tribute to Dead Bishop. The services were closed by Rev. Father McGuigan, the feature of his remarks der plot, from which her husband was being a tribute to Bishop Satterlee, whose to have a narrow escape, but which leath occurred Saturday morning. Rev. would land her in the penitentiary.

Father McGuigan said: The clergy of St. Patrick's take advant The cergy of St. Fathers are advantage on this occasion to express deep sympathy with his becaused people and the community in the death of Bishop Satteriee. They regret the loss of one so untiring in his zeal for the welfare of the city and the manner in which she was decoyed the manner of this centire community. During the delivery of bearing Soil.

SAND BEARS MUCH GOLD.

Victoria, British Columbia, Feb. 23.-If news brought here to-night proves cor-rect. Vancouver Island will see a of hiring the Indian to kill his father. stampede this summer unequalled since days of the Klondike gold rush.

In Beach Sands, on Wreck Bay, at Sid- her to it and filed his petition first. ney Inlet, on the west coast, a bank of sand 100 feet high has been found won-From the Manchester Guardi drously rich in gold.

Walter Myles, an old-time miner, of Colorado and Yukon, has just had numerous samples assayey and the results are attempts to hang the Babbicombe mursaid to be sufficient to justify the wildest hopes. The sands pan out 5 to 15 in the neighborhood, reminds a correspon-Rev. Joseph P. McComas, rector of St. Anne's to-day announced with the deep-with the d trial at the Old Bailey several enterpris est regret to his congregation the death of Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, Bishop of Washington. Rev. Mr. McComas spoke in glowing terms of the dead prelate. He was beloved by those who knew him and every natural discounts for the death of pounds in my pocket," said one disapon the jury clerks and professional men who didn't want the job and can't make a penny-piece out of it." If he had been The Largest Morning Circulation. All advertising contracts made by The successful his house would have been Washington Herald are based upon its crowded with the curious for many days bona fide circulation—a circulation in after the trial, for a personal narrative Washington larger by thousands than is always more interesting than a newswas ever before attained by any morn—paper report. When the reof of Charing ing newspaper at the Capital. Its books for the coroner's jury and was gratefully accepted. "And," he added, in narrating the incident, "that would have paid me PHONE WINE CO. 614 if I had given £50 for the chance." exceptional competition for licensed houses on highroads which lead to cemeteries is notorious, but, though not lack-Special for Monday ing in grimness, that is another story. 4 Bottles Choice Sweet Catawba, $1 Delivered. Cowboy, Well, it's a toss-up.

BEATS MARY GARDEN KISS. Harlem Enthusiasts Keep It Up for

Eighteen Minutes. New York, Feb. 23 .- Whether it is that

It was a long kiss, this, although no

ed During Operation.

Case of Diseased Kidneys-Edge of

Knife Cuts Through Protecting

Glove-Leaves Wife and Children.

special to The Washington Herald.

neys at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Adler Files Suit, Declaring Spouse

Her-Gives Graphic Details, -

The Saloon and the Morbid.

Cross station fell in two years ago and killed some workmen, a publican in the neighborhood promptly offered himself

Sure of That

Tenderfoot-I suppose this horse may behave all right with me, and then, again,

Is Feeding Him Poison-Counter-was slightly feverish.

from the avenue corner.

letting the hotel office know.

about eighteen minutes.

Cardinal Gives Reception at St. Patrick's Church.

ADDRESSES AT THE LUNCHEON

Tribute to Head of Church in He Has Been for Nineteen Years. Feature Speech by Senator Carter.

Immediately after the installation of official time was taken. It was long Rev. Father Russell as pastor of St. Patrick's Church yesterday, Cardinal Eventually, after the crowd grew to about a hundred or so, and the kiss was Gibbons held a reception in the parlors continuing with no signs of losing of the rectory, where he was warmly strength, some one bethought himself of greeted by hundreds of people.

The reception ended, the cardinal went As a result, up went a hallboy and down to the floor above, where a luncheon was came the shade. Estimated time of kiss, was greeted by a number of Senators. Representatives in Congress, churchmen of high degree and men of prominence n the city of Washington. It was a notable function.

Baltimore Physician Infecttaste, and the decorations attractive. To he right of the Cardinal sat Senor Don to the left Hon. Bourke Cockran, of New York Directly opposite his eminence at TRIMBLE DIRECTS COLLEAGUES Russell, who, at the conclusion of the luncheon, delivered a brief and eloquent Leading Practitioner Acquires Poisaddress which captivated all hearers. onous Germs While Operating on Father Russell's Address.

Father Russell said: th equal cordiality, I wish to extend to all a planation.

synonymous with hospitality.

It was not without pain that the tendrils of affection which had multiplied and taken deep root in Baltimore were torn up to be transplanted in another soil. The fourteen years of my priestly life in my native city were years of peaceful sunshine, during which I formed many strong attachments and learned to appreciate and value the many kind friends who stood by me loyally and affectionately in all I undertook. Their names are inscribed in undying characters in my memory. Baltimore, Md., Feb. 23.-Dr. Isaac R. I'rimble, one of Baltimore's leading surgeons, died at 12:10 to-night at St. Joseph's Hospital of blood poisoning, after a remarkable struggle between life and death. He was infected with the poison on Monday, February 10, while performing mudying characters in my memory.

But as I bid adieu to-day to those devoted friends, many of whom so kindly followed me to my new home to wish me God-speed, I see around me the future co-workers in my labors. Animated by that loyalty to the priest which is such an admirable trait in our Catholic people, they have already manifested a most encouraging reguliness to take manifested as most encouraging reguliness to take manifested as most encouraging reguliness to take manifested as most encouraging reguliness. an operation on a case of infected kid-The edge of the operating knife cur through his glove and inflicted a slight wound on one of the fingers of his left hand. He paid little attention to what seemed to be a trivial cut, for it is not unusual for surgeons to cut their fingers, but the following day he noticed that he was slightly feverish.

Blood poisoning rapidly developed. Two operations were performed upon him, he advising his brother surgeons in the matter.

First the infected veins were severed at the armpit. Other veins were removed one content of the following to the future, with its promise of loyalty and assistance, had less reason to fear the content of taken at the armpit. Other veins were removed at the armpit. Other veins were removed one content of the following to the future, with its promise of loyalty and assistance, had less reason to fear the fifth. St. Augustine's; Rev. James Connolly, Mount hand. He paid little attention to what seemed to be a trivial cut, for it is not but the following day he noticed that he operations were performed upon him, he set

I hope that you will still consider me as your de I hope that you will still consider me as your de-roted son, and remember that to a priest, no mat-Rev. Eugene Hannan, and Representative urnished his home, there is no home without charge Is that Plaintiff Employed pastor. We are yours; be you, also ours. Though foined by your blessing to another spouse, the Cathedral, your son's house is your home.

Be not against me to desire that I should leave her, for whithesoever I should go thou also must go, and where I shall dwell thou must also dwell. My people are the people of my God, thy God.

But I have already overstepped the bounds of Senatorial courtesy, and therefore must ask another to say what I would say, who can say it better, one for whom I know you cherish a warm personal affection, and whose lips are more accustomed to give expressions to the feelings of his heart's own. Therefore, he can best express what our hearts feel—the lovable Senator from Montans—Carter.

A toast to the cardinal standing was Negress and Indan to Intimidate society was shocked yesterday when A. Adler a prominent capitalist, filed petition for divorce on the ground that his wife was seasoning his food with poison,

A toast to the cardinal, standing, was that created to-day by the answer and cross-petition of Mrs. Adler, in which she alleges that her husband and son, Morris, existence of a broad and tolerant spirit conspired with a negress and half breed in all churches at this time. He said: indian to involve her in a supposed mur-

Senator Carter's Address. With great confidence I venture to say, on behalf of all here present, that Father Russell could not have been introduced to St. Patrick's congregation She further alleges it was the plan of her husband to marry again in case the more favorable auspices or by more highly respected troubled with a slight deafness.

into a lonely house by the negress on a the eloquent symon preached by his eminence in dark night and then confronted by the the church this morning, I was seated beside a felhalf breen Indian with a bloody club, low Senator, who is not a Roman Catholic, and it half breen Indian with a bloody club, with wghich he claimed to have killed her husband.

She further alleges that her son, Morris, crawled out of a trap door in the home of the negress and openly accused her of hiring the Indian to kill his father.

Mrs. Adler immediately decided upon Mrs. Adler immediately decided upon obtaining a divorce but her husband beat charitable. The whole force of Christian thought

Credit for All Washington.

Don't Be Ashamed of Your Home

You can have it as pretty and cozy as you wish, if you go about it the right way. We will gladly send you whatever Furniture, Carpets, or Draperies you need to make it perfect, and you can pay the bills in small weekly or monthly amounts that you can spare without inconvenience. We handle only good, reliable qualities, and our plainly marked prices speak for themselves.

Peter Grogan, 817-819-821-823 Seventh St. struction or religious formulas. The broad Christian Sarity of the Prince of Peace was foreign to the

That this unhappy condition has passed away is a matter of universal congratulation. As all effects are traceable to adequate causes, we cannot assume that the mighty changes which have come or Christian sentiment in this country have proceed from mere chance. In contemplating the contri-versial spirit referred to we cannot hold the Cathol cersial spirit referred to we cannot hold the Catholic Church blameless, nor can that great organization be held wholly accountable.

The old church, which has witnessed the birth and the death of a mighty succession of governments which have risen in the efforts of struggling men to better their condition, appeared here in a domain of unfettered thought and with the rigar of youth entered the arena to contend for the correctness of her doctrines and the expansion of the faith. With the passage of time we have witnessed the gradual disappearance of the spirit of intoterthe gradual disappearance of the spirit of intolerance on both sides, until finally we observe the force and power of all Christian denominations directed against sice and unrightpousness and for the moral and intellectual elevation of humanity in all walks of life:

When the historians of the future, taking note of the momentous readiustment, shell through critical and aysis seek the adequate cause. I am sure that due mead of praise will be given to that monumental book written by the eloquent pen of his enhance Cardinal Gibbons, which has become known throughout the length and breadth of this land by its familiar title. "The Faith of Our Fathers."

While adhering with unvielding tenacity to the While adhering with unyielding tenacity to the principles of the Catholic faith, the book breathes principles of the Cathone faith, the book oreaties forth a spirit of broad Christian charity which appeals to their judgment. I need not speak of the potent influence of his gentle, Christian life. Throughout his long ministry that influence has operated, as Longfellow would say, like "the benediction that follows after prayer." Exalted Christian Life.

ance that when the historians shall finally sum up the great henefactors of mankind during our gen-eration one of the names that will be written in blazoned letters of gold will be that of his emi-teuce Ja les Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Bal-

Hon. Maurice D. O'Connell, Solicitor of the Treasury, spoke for the parish of St. Patrick's, extending a cordial welcome to the new rector. Representative Bourke Cockran, of New York, closed with an eloquent address. Mr. Cockran's Speech.

He said, in part: "There were some features of these ceremonies mentioned by the two preust be one of grateful appreciation for the cordial vious speakers concerning which the nonrelease that has been accorded to me, and then, Catholics present might like some exhearty welcome to St. Patrick's-a name that has tinguished jurist who has just sat down always been in the first, and I trust will always be pointed out, was welcomed with enthu function he was not obeying a personal inclination, but discharging a high obli-He was not filling an office of human institution, but filling a missio

Those who attended the luncheon were Blood polsonling rapidly developed. Two operations were performed upon him advising his brother surgeons in the matter.

First the infected veins were severed at the armpit. Other veins were removed in the second operation.

The polson, however, had entered too fair into the circulation.

The polson, however, had entered too fair into the circulation.

The polson, however, had entered too fair into the circulation.

The polson, however, had entered too fair into the Circulation.

The polson, however, had entered too fair into the R. Woman's Medical Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons.

Be is survived by his wife, who was Miss Margaret Jones, of New York, and dive children.

WIFE ALLEGES PLOT

WIFE ALLEGES PLOT

Hibsel to the Read of the State of the State of the captain the second operation.

The polson of the third of the State of the St

OBSERVES 101ST BIRTHDAY

Wilmington Woman Greets Kin in Bed Decorated with Flags.

Songs and Recitations Form Part of Exercises-Receives Hundreds of Callers.

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 23.-Propped up in bed, which was gaily decorated with flags and banners, Mrs. Margaret Smith vesterday celebrated the 101st anniversary of her birth, surrounded by her relatives and neighbors. She is in fairly good and the citizens of the District of Columbia under health, barring infirmities of age, and is

Mrs. Smith lives with her granddaughter, Mrs. Norris Dixson, 220 Madison cardinal is a passport to the confidence and respect street, and has a grandson, Elwood S. Wilkins, five great-grandchildran, and a niece and nephew are also living. Several hundred persons called during five years.

A Source of British Wealth. From the New York Journal of Commerce It is evident that British trade is not

"free imports." The so-called tariff reerm "free trade" under which the vast thing, the "unfavorable balance of trade," which Great Britain has been accumulating enormous wealth? The difference between regular imports and exand the year before $1,160,000,000. In 1901 the chief beneficiary. The document it was $1,210,000,000, showing that this so-called "unfavorable balance" has dimin- "I gi ports increasing more than imports. But she remains my widow, and in case of you were an old fool and he tried to what is the effect of this "infavorable her remarrlage, or in case of her death, break the medicine bottles." balance?" It consists of commodities and merchandise, or articles of value of some which the country acquires and either consumes or accumulates in the same or another form. These have been paid for somehow, in other products of value or in service of ora kind or another, banking, insurance, shipping. &c. They have not been acquired by exhausting British gold, for Great Britain uses gold as a medium of exchange the world over and keeps up its supply so far as necessary for that purpose. The fact is that the United Kingdom has grown vastly rich on an "unfavorable balance of

A Diplomat.

"Say, Uncle! Got change for a fiver?" "Bless my soul, yes, my lad!" "Well, lend it to me!"

STORE HOURS: 8 TO 6; SATURDAYS OPEN UNTIL 9.

WHERE YOU CAN HAVE IT CHARGED.

TION YOURSELF. TAKE % OFF ALL

5% OFF ALL CARPETS

That's What the Big Semi-Annual Discount Sale of Furniture and Carpets Means. Last Big Week Begins To-day!

THINKS THESE EVIL TIMES

Parkhurst Declares Nation Is Degenerating as Hebrews Did.

Points Out How Ancients Lost Ambition After Death of Leader Joshua,

Parkhurst, at the Madison Square Presbyterian Church, preached to-day a Washington's Birthday sermon. In this he compared Washington to the Hebrew leader, Joshua, when the Hebrews, but recently delivered from their tribulations, were inspired with an intense civic and moral consciousness that led them to advantage, and whose total interest in | m sibility to which they are now officially comraitted by the suffrages of their constituents

civic duty; it is passion for perquisites. That accounts for the fact that neither Congress nor the State legislature has ione enough legitimate work since the espective sessions began to indicate distinctly that they are legislative bodies. "In 1788," said the speaker, shaking his fist vigorously, "men knew what liberty meant. They had just been pouring out their blood for it. We have been doing nothing of late but whip the Spanish, count our profits, and go around the world bragging of our naval power and ur material prosperity. So we, fallen into the same condition of relaxed moral purpose and regardlessness of di vine sanction that characterized the He brews after Joshua was gone.

YIELDS LEGACY TO MARRY

Widow Gives Up Inheritance for Love of Her Boarder.

New Matrimonial Partner Divorced Only Thirteen Days Before Second Ceremony.

Norristown, Feb. 23.-Casting aside the inheritance of thousands of dollars left to her by her husband on the condition in Southern Onio, when, as a child. I was a witness to the bitter and unrelenting spirit of controversy waged not only between Catholics and Protestants, but also over shades of difference, real or fancied, between the numerous sects of the Protestant.

Which she thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Smith is a native of London Grove, Annie M. Stemple, widow of M. Fillmore between the numerous sects of the Protestant.

Pa., but has lived in Wilmington forty Stemple, yesterday became the bride of Benjamin F. Bisbing, a boarder, thirteen days divorced, and changed her residence from Conshohocken to Norristown The marriage was performed by the Rev. Thomas R. Bisbing, pastor of the First eclining under that deadly policy of Presbyterian Church, Norristown.

formers for some reason shrink from the M. Fillmore Stemple, high constable, councilman, and a Republican leader in ndustry and trade of the kingdom have Montgomery County, died January 18, en built up. But how about that awful 1906, possessed of considerable real and personal property, as well as a large interest in the vast estate of his deceased father. He left a will disposing of an estate worth $20,900, naming his wife and ports last year was about $1,100,000,000, two sons executors. The wife was made

"I give my wife, Annie M, Stemple, the ished somewhat in consequence of ex- income of all my real estate so long as SPECIAL NOTICES.

Up-to Date PRINT SHOP.

Judd & Detweiler, Inc.,

The Big Print Shop, 420-22 11th. THE UNDERSIGNED HEREBY GIVE notice that they have entered into a partnership for the purpose of conducting in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, the furniture, carpet, and housefurnishing business under the name, style, and firm of Gates & Rich. Wistar W. Gates and Alfred S. Rich, who reside in said city and District, are the general partners, and Martha Brader Rich, who resides in the same place is the control of the c hundred and fourteen. WISTAR W. GATES, Gener ALFRED S. RICH, MARTHA BRADER

Washington, D. C., January 27, 1908. m-w-f-4w "Were there in this community the OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE a list of eligibles for appointments as sanitary and food inspectors in the service of the Health Depart-Health Officer not later than account apply to the tion blanks and further information, apply to the Health Officer, District Endding, HENRY B. F. MACFARLAND, HENRY L. WEST, JAY J. MOH. Constitutioners, D. C. fc22,24.25,25,27,28

HOURS AT HOME. Persons wishing to see Bishop Oliver C. Sabin regarding the New Thought Philosophy are informed that he is at home, 1329 M street northwest, daily, and will receive visitors from 11:30 a. m. until 2

Visitors who reside out of the city are welcome at any time. Persons wishing to see him after 8 p. m. should write and have an appointment made, as that will insure an audience. Telephone North 734

Our REPRESENTATIVE

-is always ready to call and "talk printing" with you. Consult him regarding your Spring Printing needs.

Geo. E. Howard, 714 12th, PRINTER, ENGRAVER AND BOOKBINDER. Benj. R. Coles & Co., Upholstering of l kinds. Slip covers. 303 9th nw. M. 6516.

executors and divided between my two sons, Joseph W. Stemple and Jay B. Stemple, share and share alike. my wife, Annie M. Stemple, the use of the same as long as she remains my widow,

"As to my personal property, I give to and at her death, or in case she should remarry, the said personal property to be sold by my executors and divided between my sons, Joseph W. Stemple and Jay B. Stemple, share and share alike." Under the provisions of the will Mrs. Stemple, in marrying Mr. Bisbing, forfeits her claims to any part of her husband's estate. In applying for a marriage years. The groom gave his age as thirty-

Who Got the Money? From the Electrical World.

At St. Joseph, Mo., on December 17, a serious sensation was sprung when the grand jury of the Criminal Court inserted a probe into the affairs of the city electric light plant. It is alleged that "dummies" have been carried on the pay roll for the last three years, and during the past year the city has thus lost more than $16,000. In one department, where ness before the grand jury testified that Doctor-Has your husband had any lucid intervals since I was here last? "Well, this morning he kept shouting

$15 Tapestry Brussels

Rugs, $11.45

-A number of these rugs, 8 ft. 3 in. by 10 ft. 6 in. specially marked for clearance. Quality, pattern, and price all recommend them for your consideration.

W. B. MOSES & SONS, F St., Cor. 11th.